COME AND SING WITH US

We are a friendly choir based in Mill Hill working to high standards with professional musicians. If you would like to try singing with a good choir, why not come along to a rehearsal? We always give a warm welcome to new singers with some experience.

We rehearse at 7.40 p.m. on Thursdays at John Keble Church, Church Close, Deans Lane, Edgware starting on 14 September 2000.

This is near bus routes 221, 240, 292 and 305.

LONDON PRO ARTE CHOIR

The London Pro Arte Choir has a reputation for excellence, developed over many years. We have appeared frequently in Mill Hill, elsewhere in North London, and at major London venues including St. James's Piccadilly and the Royal Albert Hall. We have also appeared a number of times on BBC Television in "Joy to the World".

We are a versatile choir with a varied repertoire including many of the major choral works, and we are accustomed to singing music of all periods and styles. We are equally at ease singing Bach, Bernstein, Brahms or Britten or accompanying Lesley Garrett, Ben Luxon or Cliff Richard. We work in association with some of this country's finest professional instrumentalists, and we also encourage young talented soloists and instrumentalists whenever possible.

Musical Director Robin Kimber
Accompanist Paul Ayres

We enjoy the challenge of singing new works as well as familiar ones. We look forward to singing next season the Fauré Requiem, the Bach Christmas Oratorio and Handel's Birthday Ode to Queen Anne. We start our season with a "Sing In" of the Fauré Requiem on Thursday September 21st. All singers are warmly invited to take part. Details of our rehearsal venue are on the back page.*

Our new Musical Director, Robin Kimber, has spent his professional life involved in music in London and Oxford. In 2000 he conducted Elgar's Gerontius, which involved members of the London Pro Arte Choir, and he toured Austria and Belgium. He is very much looking forward to his first season as Musical Director of the London Pro Arte Choir.
