COME AND SING WITH US

We are a friendly choir working to high standards with professional musicians. We always give a warm welcome to new singers. If you would like to sing with us:

- Come to our sing in (16 September)
- Come to a rehearsal (Thursdays 7.30-10 p.m.)
- Contact our membership secretary (see below)

We rehearse at St. Michael's Church, Flower Lane, Mill Hill, London NW7. This is near bus routes 113, 114, 186, 221, 240, 251, 302 and a short walk from Mill Hill Broadway Thameslink station.

Our social programme includes a quiz supper, barn dance and garden party.

LONDON PRO ARTE CHOIR

Concert Season

2004 ~ 2005

featuring:

Fauré

Handel

Haydn

Jenkins

Poulenc

LONDON PRO ARTE CHOIR

The London Pro Arte Choir is proud to present another season under the musical direction of Robin Kimber. The reputation of the choir continues to grow: last season it sang Chilcott's Jubilate and gave a concert performance of Gershwin's Porgy & Bess.

The repertoire of the choir is widening and the coming season will include new delights by Haydn, Jenkins and Poulenc.

The choir has grown steadily under Robin's baton. New members have found a warm welcome awaiting them, and have been encouraged by well-focused rehearsals, adroitly accompanied by Paul Ayres. Although there is no formal audition, a certain degree of musical literacy is assumed. For those less confident with sightreading, voice tapes are available.

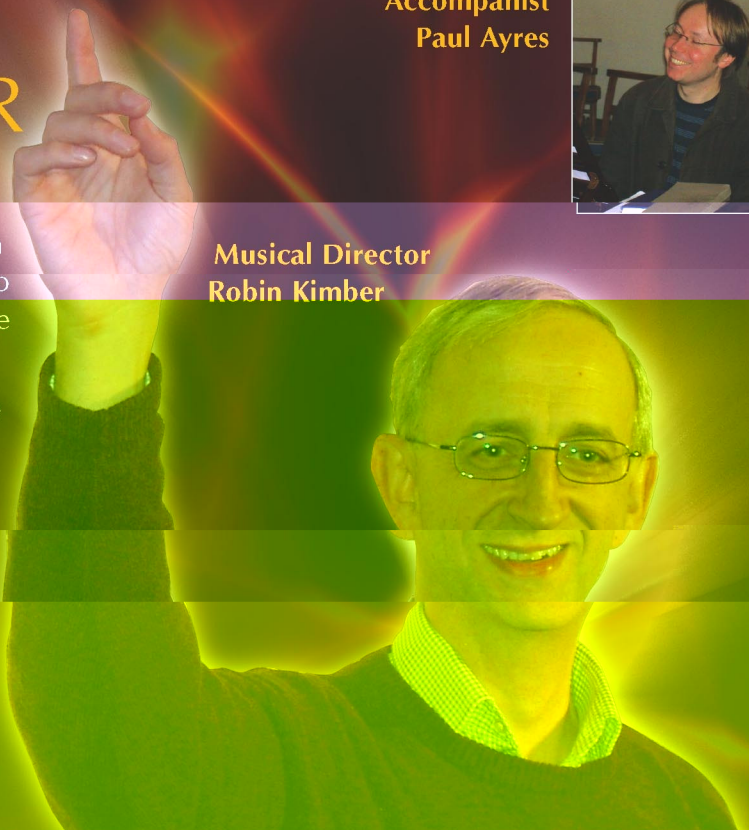

Robin Kimber has spent most of his professional life involved with music in London and Oxford. He looks forward to the challenges of guiding the choir through this year's programme and is delighted to be leading them in another new season of music making.

In 2003-4 we helped raise £1300 for Ovacome, the ovarian cancer charity, and we performed at the North London Hospice. Childline is our charity for 2004-5, and the family carols at Belmont will be raising money for this.
