COME AND SING WITH US

We are a friendly choir working to high standards with professional musicians. We always give a warm welcome to new singers. If you would like to sing with us:

- Come to our workshop (23 September)
- Come to a rehearsal (Thursdays 7.30-10 p.m.)
- Contact our membership secretary (see below)

We rehearse at St. Michael's Church, Flower Lane, Mill Hill, London NW7. This is near bus routes 113, 114, 186, 221, 240, 251 and 302, and is only a short walk from Mill Hill Broadway Thameslink station.

Our social programme includes a quiz supper, a barn dance and a garden party.

LONDON PRO ARTE CHOIR

The London Pro Arte Choir, under its musical director Robin Kimber, is proud to present another season of choral music.

The scope and outreach of the choir continues to grow. Last season we commissioned a new work by Paul Ayres and gave two charity concerts: one in aid of Mind in Barnet and one – at St James', Piccadilly – in aid of John Grooms.

We have grown steadily in size over the past few years. New members find the choir welcoming and are drawn into well-focused rehearsals, nimbly accompanied by Paul Ayres. There is no formal audition and voice part tapes are available to help those less confident in reading music, but a certain degree of musical literacy is assumed.

The choir has an ever-expanding repertoire, and this year we are looking forward to the challenge of work by Saint-Saëns, Gounod, Britten and Vaughan-Williams. We are also looking forward to a singing tour of France in the summer of 2007.

Robin Kimber has spent much of his professional life involved in music in London and Oxford. He looks forward to the challenges of guiding the choir through this year's programme and is pleased to be leading them in another new season of music making.
