

About us

London Pro Arte Choir has been entertaining with choral music for 60 years. It is based in Mill Hill NW7 but also performs in central London venues.

The choir supports local charities, and has performed four times for the Mayor of Barnet's Appeal. It has sung in Europe for the past four years, most recently in Paris. LPAC promoted Classic Mill Hill music festival in June 2010.

LPAC is conducted by Robin Kimber. Robin has spent much of his professional life involved in music in London and Oxford. In the past ten years he has led the choir through many exciting programmes.

Join us

London Pro Arte Choir welcomes new members. Rehearsals are on Thursday evenings 7.30 – 10pm at St Michael's, Flower Lane.

London Pro Arte Choir Programme 2010 ~ 11

Saturday 4 December 2010

7.30pm at St. Michael's Church, Flower Lane
In aid of Mill Hill and Burnt Oak
Good Neighbour Scheme

Sounds Angelic
Tavener ~ Song for Athene
Stravinsky ~ Ave Maria
Duruflé ~ Requiem

Mesmerising angelic music, this heavenly medley from the 16th century through to the present culminates in John Tavener's memorable 'Song for Athene'

Saturday 26 March 2011

7.30pm at St. Michael's Church, Flower Lane

Haydn ~ St Nicholas Mass
McDowall ~ Magnificat

The music of Haydn is often upbeat and his St Nicholas Mass is unashamedly cheerful. The Magnificat is Mary's outpouring of joy as she learns she is to become a mother – matched by the beautiful music of Cecilia McDowall.

Saturday 11 June 2011

7.30pm at St. Michael's Church, Flower Lane

Todd ~ Mass in blue
Lauridsen ~ Nocturnes

LPAC in groovy mode! Since its commission in 2003 Will Todd's Mass in Blue has taken the choral world by storm with its funky rhythms. To contrast: Morten Lauridsen's inimitable music, to create that perfect, lingering summer's evening...
